

Umbria is undoubtedly one of the Italian regions that best know how to exploit the wonders had a gift from history and nature with a diverse set of proposed stay, like hotels and other accommodations in Perugia province, suitable for the whole family and offer: comfort, convenience, artistic attractions, music, gastronomy and landscapes of incredible beauty.

Hotel Campiglione near Assisi is the perfect solution for everyone, from those who want to spend a vacation with the right mix of relaxation, nature, entertainment, art and culture, in addition to the pleasures of good food to those who find themselves in our wonderful region for business.

Cosy hotel, three stars, located in the heart of green plain of Assisi, Perugia, a charming place to spend a holiday characterized by infinite opportunities for fun and relaxation. Hotel Assisi family Campiglione provides the thoughtful attention to detail to ensure its guests the certainty of a service that is truly satisfactory in every respect. Particular attention is given to customers pouring their business benefits and discounts. Wi-fi access.

The hotel is open all year.